

Commends Ransom Rambo, La. artist, and requests that the state Dept. of Education and public school governing authorities review his "Faces of Freedom" lithograph, note its historic and educational value, and consider incorporating it into the seventh grade American history curriculum.