

Existing law provides with respect to the Kenner Naval Museum and the Kenner Naval Museum Commission. Also provides with respect to certain duties of the commission as well as its authority to acquire, lease, construct, and finance certain facilities and improvements.

Prior law provided that part of the museum was to be the U.S.S. Cabot-Dedalo. Further provided that the duties of the commission include the management and maintenance of the U.S.S. Cabot-Dedalo. New law removes references to the U.S.S. Cabot-Dedalo but makes existing law applicable to any naval vessel the commission acquires.

Effective Aug. 1, 2014.
