

Creates a study committee to study new voting system technology, processes, and procedures, including storage of voting systems; to develop recommendations for changes to the Louisiana Election Code related thereto; and to report its findings and recommendations to the legislature no later than March 1, 2015. Additionally, provides for the composition of the study committee.