20(A)(1)

In the tax year following the year in which a statewide reappraisal of property pursuant to Article VII, Section 18(F) of this constitution is conducted, the homestead exemption shall be adjusted to reflect the change in the Consumer Price Index for that year as reported by the United States Government; however, this exemption shall never be less than ten thousand dollars. The same homestead exemption shall also fully apply to the primary residence, including a mobile home, which serves as a bona fide home and which is owned and occupied by any person or persons owning the property in indivision, regardless of whether the homeowner owns the land upon which the home or mobile home is sited; however, this homestead exemption shall not apply to the land upon which such primary residence is sited if the homeowner does not own the land. Section 2. Be it further resolved that this proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana at the statewide election to be held on October 24, 2015. Section 3. Be it further resolved that this proposed amendment, if approved by the electors, shall become effective on January 1, 2016. Section 4. Be it further resolved that on the official ballot to be used at the election, there shall be printed a proposition, upon which the electors of the state shall be permitted to vote YES or NO, to amend the Constitution of Louisiana, which proposition shall read as follows: Do you support an amendment to increase the homestead exemption to one hundred thousand dollars of value of property and to require that in the year following a statewide reappraisal of property, the homestead exemption shall be adjusted to reflect the change in Consumer Price Index for that tax year; and to prohibit the homestead exemption from being adjusted to less than one hundred thousand dollars? (January 1, 2016) (Amends Article VII, Section

HB 59 Original

2015 Regular Session

Adams

Abstract: Increases the homestead exemption from $75,000 to $100,000 of value of the property and requires adjustment of the exemption after a statewide reappraisal to reflect changes in the Consumer Price Index.

Present constitution provides for the annual levy of ad valorem taxes and the exemption from such taxation of homesteads and other property. The bona fide homestead is exempt from state, parish, and special ad valorem taxes up to $7,500 of assessed valuation, which is $75,000 of the property's value.

Proposed constitutional amendment increases the homestead exemption $\underline{\text{from}}$ \$75,000 of the property's value $\underline{\text{to}}$ \$100,000 of the property's value.

Proposed constitutional amendment further provides that in the tax year following the year that a statewide reappraisal of property required by present constitution is conducted, the homestead exemption shall be adjusted by the Consumer Price Index as reported by the U.S. Government; however, the exemption shall never be less than $100,000 of the value of the property.

Provides for submission of the proposed amendment to the voters at the statewide election to be held Oct. 24, 2015.

Effective Jan. 1, 2016.

(Amends Const. Art. VII, §20(A)(1))
