SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 108

BY SENATOR BROWN

COMMENDATIONS. Commends Danielle Deggs on starting the first African-American owned and operated residential and commercial real estate agency in Iberville Parish.

A RESOLUTION

To commend and congratulate Danielle Deggs on starting the first African-American owned and operated residential and commercial real estate agency in Iberville Parish.

WHEREAS, Danielle Deggs is a native of Plaquemine, Louisiana, being born on May 4, 1984, to Renee Deggs and Ronald Henderson; and

WHEREAS, she was raised in the city of Plaquemine in Iberville Parish where she also attended school, graduating from Plaquemine High School in May 2002; and

WHEREAS, Danielle Deggs obtained a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a minor in Finance from Colorado Technical University, and then attended Southern University and Agricultural and Mechanical College where she graduated with a Master of Business Administration; and

WHEREAS, for seven years she worked in the sales industry where she constantly excelled, and in 2010, she embarked upon a career as a real estate agent with continued success; and

WHEREAS, today, Danielle Deggs is a trusted real estate professional broker who is driven by compassion focusing her approach around "the people", helping families become homeowners, moving sellers to their desired homes, and redeveloping and restoring pride in neighborhoods within her state's market; and

1 WHEREAS, she sets forth every day expecting the very best and has earned multiple 2 certifications and received several awards in recognition of her success; and

3 WHEREAS, this single parent of one daughter is no stranger to hard work because 4 she has been working since the age of fifteen, going to school full time, and running a 5 business; and

6 WHEREAS, after four short years of working as a real estate agent, she decided to 7 open Vanguard Properties, starting the first African-American owned and operated 8 residential and commercial real estate agency in Iberville Parish.

9 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana that 10 Danielle Deggs is hereby commended and congratulated on starting the first 11 African-American owned and operated residential and commercial real estate agency in 12 Iberville Parish.

13 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to 14 Danielle Deggs.
