an offense other than a crime of violence as defined in R.S. 14:2(B) or of a sex offense as defined in R.S. 15:541(24), and who has had his probation revoked under the provisions of this Article for his first technical violation of his probation as determined by the court, shall be required to serve a sentence of not more than ninety days without diminution of sentence or credit for time served prior to the revocation for a technical violation. The defendant shall be given credit for time served prior to the revocation hearing for time served in actual custody while being held for a technical violation in a local detention facility, state institution, or out-of-state institution pursuant to Code of Criminal Procedure Article 880. The term of the revocation for a technical violation shall begin on the date the court orders the revocation. Upon completion of the imposed sentence for the technical revocation, the defendant shall return to active and supervised probation for a period equal to the remainder of the original period of probation subject to any additional conditions imposed by the court. The provisions of this Paragraph shall apply only to the defendant's first revocation for a technical violation.
