SUCCESSION/FORCED HEIRS: Provides relative to children conceived through gamete donation

DIGEST

Present law provides that as a juridical person, an embryo or child born as a result of in vitro fertilization and in vitro fertilization ovum donation does not retain any inheritance rights from the in vitro fertilization patients.

Proposed law retains present law and provides that a child conceived by gametes donated shall not be a forced heir of or inherit from the individual donors of the gametes used in the in vitro fertilization process, unless the donor would be a person from whom the child could inherit under existing law notwithstanding the in vitro fertilization process.
