

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

ACT 267 (SB 70)

2016 Regular Session

Long

Prior law, relative to sex offenders, prohibited persons who are required to register and provide notification as a sex offender from engaging in the following types of employment:

- (1) Operate any bus, taxicab, or limousine for hire.
- (2) Engage in employment as a service worker who goes into a residence to provide any type of service.

Prior law provided that violators be fined up to $10,000 and imprisoned at hard labor for not less than five years and no more than 10 years, three years of which must be served without the benefit of parole, probation, or suspension of sentence. New law retains the penalty provisions.

New law further prohibits a person registered as a sex offender from engaging in employment as a door-to-door solicitor, peddler, or itinerant vendor to sell any type of goods or services, including magazines or periodicals or subscriptions to magazines or periodicals.
