AN ACT

SENATE BILL NO. 179

BY SENATOR RISER

2	To enact Chapter 21-C of Title 25 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, to be
3	comprised of R.S. 25:951 through 959, relative to the Louisiana Human Remains
4	Protection and Control Act; to provide relative to the control and management of
5	human remains; to provide relative to legislative intent; to provide definitions; to
6	provide penalties; to provide exemptions; to provide relative to enforcement; and to
7	provide for related matters.
8	Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:
9	Section 1. Chapter 21-C of Title 25 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950
10	comprised of R.S. 25:951 through 959, is hereby enacted to read as follows:
11	CHAPTER 21-C. LOUISIANA HUMAN REMAINS
12	PROTECTION AND CONTROL ACT
13	§951. Title
14	This Chapter shall be known as the "Louisiana Human Remains
15	Protection and Control Act".
16	§952. Legislative findings and declaration of intent
17	The legislature hereby finds that Louisiana law has never permitted
18	recognized, or sanctioned ownership rights in human remains and that such materials are explicitly exempted from property concepts under both common and civil law. The legislature further finds that the trade in or commodification of human remains fosters the looting and desecration of cemeteries and other sacred sites. The legislature further finds that existing state laws do not adequately protect against the illicit trade in human remains and that such trade needs to be stemmed in order to minimize looting and desecration of cemeteries. The legislature also finds and declares that there is a need for a central state entity to manage the enforcement of human remains laws and that, because the attorney general is already the statutory counsel to the Louisiana Cemetery Board, as well as being charged with civil enforcement of the Louisiana Unmarked Human Burial Sites Preservation Act and the Louisiana Historic Cemetery Preservation Act, the attorney general is uniquely qualified to enforce and police all illicit transactions in and commodification of human remains contemplated by this Chapter.

§953. Definitions
As used in this Chapter, the following terms shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:
(1) "Human remains" means the body or parts thereof of a deceased person and includes the body or parts thereof in any stage of decomposition, as well as cremated remains.
(2) "Trade" means to distribute, to offer for sale, to offer for acquisition, to buy, to sell, to barter, to exchange, to give, to receive, to donate, or to bequest,
whether by physical delivery or by subterfuge.
(3) "Possession" means the exercise of control over human remains.
§954. Prohibited acts
Except as otherwise permitted by law:
(1) The possession of human remains is prohibited.
(2) It shall be unlawful to trade in, discard, or destroy human remains.
§955. Penalties

A.(1) A first offense violation of this Chapter shall be punishable upon

SB NO. 179	ENROLLED

1	conviction by a time of not more than live thousand dollars, or imprisonment,
2	with or without hard labor, for not more than one year, or both.
3	(2) Upon conviction of a second or subsequent offense, each violation
4	shall be punishable by imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for not more
5	than two years, or a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars, or both.
6	(3) Each item of human remains in possession or trade shall constitute
7	a separate offense.
8	B. The attorney general may institute civil proceedings seeking
9	injunctive relief to restrain and prevent violations of this Chapter.
10	C. The attorney general may institute civil proceedings seeking civil
11	damages from any person who knowingly violates any provision of this Chapter.
12	Civil damages shall include any or all of the following:
13	(1) Forfeiture of any and all equipment used in obtaining the human
14	remains.
15	(2) Any and all costs incurred in cleaning, restoring, analyzing,
16	accessioning, and curating the recovered human remains.
17	(3) Any and all costs associated with the reinterment of the human
18	remains.
19	(4) Any and all costs associated with determining and collecting civil
20	damages, including but not limited to filing fees, attorney fees, court costs, fees
21	associated with discovery and the testimony of expert witnesses, and collection
22	costs.
23	D. The attorney general may bring actions for injunctive relief or civil
24	damages in either the district court for the parish of East Baton Rouge or in the
25	district court where the burial site, the human skeletal remains, or other body
26	parts, or the burial artifacts are located.
27	§956. Amnesty program
28	A. A natural or juridical person possessing human remains in violation
29	of this Chapter may voluntarily relinquish possession of such human remains
30	to the Louisiana Department of Justice without sanctions under this Chapter.
