

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

ACT 89 (HB 289)

2016 Regular Session

Garofalo

Existing law provides that when the existence of a corporation terminates, the corporation's juridical personality is also terminated except for any of the following purposes:

- (1) To reserve the corporation's name.
- (2) To conclude any proceeding to which the corporation is a party at the time of the termination.
- (3) To continue in ownership of any undistributed corporate assets and to owe any undischarged corporate obligations or liabilities.

New law retains existing law and adds the following additional purpose for which a corporation's juridical personality will continue after the corporation terminates: to dispose of immovable property owned by the corporation pursuant to a resolution of the board of directors.

Effective August 1, 2016.
