Present law requires the committee to conduct a review of the funds and dedications in the plan and to report its findings every two years, by February 15, to the speaker of the House of Representatives, the president of the Senate, the governor, and the commissioner of administration.

Proposed law changes present law to require the JLCB report annually, by Oct. 1, to all members of the legislature, the governor, and commissioner of administration.

Proposed law requires the JLCB to include in its report a recommendation that the reviewed funds and dedications either be continued or terminated and requires the recommendation to be approved by a majority of the members of the committee.
