HB 320 Original

2018 Regular Session

Davis

Abstract: Adds to the definition of a payor for purposes of enforcement of child support by income assignment.

Present law provides a definition of a "payor" as part of income assignment for child support.

Proposed law amends the definition of "payor" to include a payor of any income to a person ordered to pay support, or a financial institution in which the obligor has assets and which payor has first received an income assignment pursuant to present law.
