SB 487 Engrossed	DIGEST 2018 Regular Session	Appel
------------------	--------------------------------	-------

Present law provides for the following:

- (1) A local ethics entity, ethics review board, or office of inspector general shall have the authority to examine, review, audit, inspect, and investigate the records, books, reports, documents, papers, correspondence, accounts, audits, inspections, reviews, recommendations, plans, films, tapes, pictures, computer hard drives, software data, hardware data, emails, instant messages, text messages, and any other data and material relevant to any matter under audit, investigation, inspection, or performance review of all entities of the local governmental subdivision or entities receiving funds through or for the benefit of the local governmental subdivision.
- (2) For the purposes of present law, these entities include but are not limited to every local governmental subdivision officer, employee, elected official, department, agency, board, commission, public benefit corporation, quasi public agency or body, contractor, subcontractor, licensee of the local governmental subdivision, and every applicant for certification of eligibility for a municipal contract or program.
- (3) These entities also include all local governmental subdivision governing authorities, all districts, boards, and commissions created by local governmental subdivision governing authorities either independently or in conjunction with other units of government, and all independently elected parish public officials whose offices receive funds from the municipality.

Proposed law retains present law and also includes the Jefferson Parish School Board as an entity that a local ethics entity, ethics review board, or office of inspector general has the authority to examine, review, audit, inspect, and investigate.

Effective August 1, 2018.
