HB 340 Original

2019 Regular Session

Hollis

Abstract: Provides with respect to real estate appraisals and federal financial institutions.

Present law provides definitions relative to the Louisiana Real Estate Appraisers Law. Proposed law retains present law and adds a definition for "federal financial institutions regulatory agency".

Present law requires that licensed real estate appraisers comply with professional standards of practice in the development and communication of appraisals.

Proposed law retains present law.

Proposed law provides that nothing in present law prohibits a licensed real estate appraiser from performing an evaluation of property for a federally insured depository institution if the appraisal is conducted pursuant to applicable law and regulations.

(Amends R.S. 37:3410(A); Adds R.S. 37:3392(14))
