LAW ENFORCE/OFFICERS: Provides relative to motorcyclist profiling training for peace officers

DIGEST

Proposed law requires the Council on Peace Officer Standards and Training to add motorcyclist profiling awareness training to the current bias recognition policing curriculum.

Proposed law defines "motorcyclist profiling" for purposes of this training.

Proposed law adds security personnel employed by a court of appeal to the list of peace officers required to participate in the training.

Present law provides for supplemental pay for peace officers who complete the training.

Present law provides that certified security personnel of the Supreme Court shall not be eligible to receive supplemental pay benefits even though the peace officer has successfully completed a council-approved training program.

Proposed law adds security officers of the court of appeal to present law provision for the security officers of the Supreme Court, and provides that the commission issued to court security personnel shall remain in force and in effect at the pleasure of the employing court.

(Amends R.S. 40:2405(B)(2) and 2405.8(G); adds R.S. 40:2402(3)(e) and 2405.8(H))
