

2019 Regular Session

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 249

BY SENATOR PEACOCK

COMMENDATIONS. Commends Susan P. Montague on her retirement from the Louisiana Senate.

1 A RESOLUTION

2 To commend Susan P. Montague upon her forty-five years of public service to the 3 Legislature of Louisiana and to congratulate her upon the occasion of her retirement
4 from the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana.

5 WHEREAS, Susan "Suzi" Price Montague has been employed forty-five years with 6 legislative staff services beginning in 1974 when she came to work for the Louisiana 7 Legislative Council as a PBX operator; and

8 WHEREAS, during her tenure, she has occupied positions as telephone operator, 9 proofreader, copy printer, subject indexer, citator editor, and drafter of resolution requests; 10 and

11 WHEREAS, with her cheerful demeanor and constant smile, Suzi has provided 12 advice, whether solicited or not, and has been touted to be a fount of trivial information and 13 institutional knowledge; and

14 WHEREAS, born Susan Alice Price, the first child of Bill and Mary Price, in 15 Monroe, Louisiana, and reared in Rayville, Louisiana, until the age of sixteen when her 16 family moved to Baker, Louisiana; and

17 WHEREAS, she graduated from Baker High School and attended Louisiana State 18 University where she attained a Bachelor of Science in elementary education in 1973 and

1 a Master of Public Administration (MPA) in 2004; and

2 WHEREAS, Suzi answered an advertisement seeking the services of a telephone 3 operator for the Louisiana Legislative Council, the forerunner agency that would become the 4 separate legislative staffs of the Senate and House of Representatives; and

5 WHEREAS, she was hired during the 1974 Regular Session and since that time has 6 participated in ninety-four regular and extraordinary legislative sessions; and

7 WHEREAS, 1974 was the nascent era of information technology and in the venue 8 of legislative services; bill drafting was a pen and paper operation, bill typing was done on 9 "mag-cards", corrections were made with scissors, tape, white-out correcting fluid, and some 10 fancy work known as "cut and clip"; and

11 WHEREAS, before the advent of legislative computer services, legislative sessions 12 required months of preparation; Suzi worked fourteen-hour days for weeks on end along 13 with fellow staffers that would become close lifelong friends and nearly family; it was a 14 Baby Boomer generation of exciting young legal professionals with such camaraderie that 15 every marriage and birth was celebrated and every loss and death mourned; and

16 WHEREAS, with receipt of her MPA in 2004 and at the urging of staff attorney 17 Diane Burkhart, Suzi began to write resolutions; her talent for prose and expression 18 impressed her colleagues, and commendations and condolences of some importance came 19 across her desk concerning state dignitaries, legislators, and unusual requests when 20 circumstances fell outside the realm of the everyday commendation; and

21 WHEREAS, on March 20, 1976, Suzi married Carter, whose surname, Montague, 22 the general public can neither spell nor pronounce; they have been married for forty-three 23 years and have tolerated one another rather graciously; they are planning a retirement tour 24 of the lower forty-eight states; and

25 WHEREAS, Carter and Suzi are the crazy aunt and uncle that have opened their 26 home to St. Patrick Day Parade celebrations and water balloon fights; and

27 WHEREAS, her future plans include volunteer work, quilting and sewing for charity, 28 landscaping her yard with copious amounts of flowers and shrubs, and in particular, 29 spending time outdoors during spring and early summer with legions of old friends; and

30 WHEREAS, she plans on spending more time with her two brothers, Walter and

1 William, and with six nieces and nephews, and eight great-nieces and great-nephews; and

2 WHEREAS, she shall miss living and working in the Louisiana State Capitol with 3 its history and beautiful Art Deco appointments, and she shall also miss the view from the 4 sixteenth floor where she could watch beautiful sunsets, mark the changing of the seasons, 5 predict the weather, and observe the urban landscape of the city; and

6 WHEREAS, she shall sincerely miss the day-to-day banter with long-time friends 7 and perhaps miss the excitement that steadily builds as the next legislative session draws 8 near; and

9 WHEREAS, in the days that follow, Suzi Montague shall fondly recall political high 10 points and memories from the past, the rarefied environment that is state government, and 11 the colorful cast of characters that has graced the state legislature during her tenure.

12 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that congratulations are hereby extended to 13 Suzi Montague on the occasion of her well-deserved retirement from the Senate of the state 14 of Louisiana.

15 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that best wishes are hereby extended to her from 16 those legislators, staff members, and friends, both past and present, who have shared their 17 experiences with her at the state capitol.

18 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Suzi is hereby endowed with the mythical 19 "Chuck Burns Retirement Blessing" that she may live a long, happy, and carefree life from 20 this day forward.

21 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to 22 Susan P. Montague.

The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Nancy Vicknair.

DIGEST

SR 249 Original 2019 Regular Session Peacock

Commends Susan P. Montague on her retirement from the Louisiana Senate.