2020 Regular Session

Wilford Carter

Abstract: Repeals the prohibition of recovery for the first $15,000 for bodily injury claims and the first $25,000 for property damage claims when the claimant fails to maintain the minimum required motor vehicle liability coverage.

Present law provides for compulsory motor vehicle liability security and provides for minimum required coverage ($15,000 for bodily injury and $25,000 for property).

Present law provides penalties for failure to maintain the minimum required coverage, including prohibiting recovery for the first $15,000 for bodily injury claims and the first $25,000 for property damage claims.

Proposed law repeals the prohibition from recovery for failure to maintain the minimum required coverage.
