DIGEST

SB 181 Original

2020 Regular Session

Harris

Present law provides that the crime of simple burglary is the unauthorized entering of any dwelling, vehicle, watercraft, or other structure, movable or immovable, or any cemetery, with the intent to commit a felony or any theft therein, except when the conduct meets the criteria set forth in the present law crime of aggravated burglary.

Proposed law changes the term "vehicle" to "motor vehicle" but otherwise retains present law.

Present law provides that whoever commits the crime of simple burglary is to be fined up to $2,000, or imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for up to 12 years, or both.

Proposed law retains present law and adds that whoever commits the crime of simple burglary of a motor vehicle is to be fined between $750 and $2,000 and imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for not more than 12 years, or both.

Present law provides that the crime of contributing to the delinquency of juveniles is the intentional enticing, aiding, soliciting, or permitting, by anyone over the age of 17 of any child under the age of 17, to commit certain acts, including:

- (1) To become involved in the commission of a crime of violence as defined in present law that is a felony or a violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Law that is a felony.
- (2) To become involved in the commission of any other felony that is not a crime of violence and not a violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Law.

Proposed law retains present law.

Present law provides that whoever is charged and convicted of contributing to the delinquency of a juvenile for soliciting a crime of violence or violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Law is to be imprisoned at hard labor for not less than two years nor more than 10 years, or imprisoned according to the sentence of imprisonment for the underlying felony, whichever is less.

Proposed law retains present law.

Present law provides that whoever is charged and convicted of contributing to the delinquency of a juvenile by soliciting any felony other than a crime of violence or a violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Law is to be fined up to $1,000, or imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for up to two years, or both.

Proposed law retains present law and adds that whoever is charged and convicted of contributing to the delinquency of a juvenile when the underlying felony is the present law crime of simple burglary relating to the simple burglary of a motor vehicle is to be fined between $1000 and $5,000 and imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for between two years and five years.

Effective August 1, 2020.
