The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Jerry J. Guillot.

DIGEST 2020 Regular Session

Hewitt

Present law provides that during a declared state of emergency, any natural or juridical person, who gratuitously and voluntarily renders any disaster relief or recovery services in coordination with the state or its political subdivisions shall not be liable to the recipient thereof for any injury or death to a person or any damage to property resulting therefrom, except in the event of gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Proposed law provides that disaster relief and recovery services includes but it not limited to making masks and homemade sanitizer. Otherwise retains present law.

Proposed law provides that during a declared state of emergency, any natural or juridical person, who renders disaster relief or recovery equipment or services in coordination with the federal government, the state, or its political subdivisions shall not be liable to the recipient thereof for any injury or death to a person or any damage to property resulting therefrom, except in the event of gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.

(Amends R.S. 29:735.1(A); adds R.S. 29:735.2)

SB 491 Original