EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated impact to expenditures of public post secondary institutions as a result of the prohibitions on collecting student debt.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There will be an indeterminable impact to revenues of public post secondary institutions to the extent the management board adopts a policy prohibiting actions institutions may take to collect outstanding student debt. Outstanding student debt may consist of unpaid tuition and fees, parking fines, housing costs, and other charges. Currently, some institutions choose to withhold transcripts until such debt is repaid. It is unknown the extent to which policies will be adopted which will impact the collections of these outstanding debts.
