Present law provides that if, after an investigation, the administrator determines that an employer, or any officer, agent, superintendent, foreman, or employee of the employer, failed to properly classify an individual as an employee and failed to pay contributions and that failure was not knowingly or willfully, the employer will be issued a written warning. Present law further provides that the written warning shall constitute as evidence that the employer has been cited for a first offense for misclassification.

Proposed law repeals present law.

Proposed law changes the administrative penalty amount from $250 to $500.

Proposed law repeals present law.

corporation, or other entity that undertakes orally or in writing, to perform services for or in connection with another party in a manner consistent with the requirements of proposed law.

Proposed law provides that if an individual or entity meets at least seven of twelve criteria listed in proposed law, there shall be a rebuttable presumption of an independent contractor relationship with the contracting party for whom the independent contractor performs work.

Proposed law provides that obtainment of an independent contractor certification from the state is optional and is not required to establish independent contractor status. Proposed law further provides that any contracting party or independent contractor may rely on the provisions of proposed law to establish an employment or independent contractor relationship.
