HOUSE BILL NO. 852

BY REPRESENTATIVES SCHLEGEL, HUGHES, MCKNIGHT, AND PRESSLY

STUDENTS: Creates a book delivery program for certain public school students

1 AN ACT

2 To enact Part IV of Chapter 43 of Title 17 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950,
3 comprised of R.S. 17:4033.1, relative to providing books and reading materials for
4 certain public school students; to establish the Reading Enrichment and Academic
5 Deliverables Program; to provide for student eligibility, program administration, and
6 funding; and to provide for related matters.

7 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

8 Section 1. Part IV of Chapter 43 of Title 17 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 9 1950, comprised of R.S. 17:4033.1, is hereby enacted to read as follows:

10 PART IV. R.E.A.D. PROGRAM

11 §4033.1. R.E.A.D. Program; establishment; student eligibility; administration;
12 funding

13 A. The R.E.A.D. (Reading Enrichment and Academic Deliverables)
14 Program, referred to in this Part as the "program", is hereby established for the 15 purpose of providing books and other reading materials to eligible students.

16 B. A public school student who falls into one of the following categories is 17 eligible to participate in the program:

18 (1) He is in kindergarten or the first, second, or third grade and reads below
19 grade level according to the results of a literacy assessment.

1 (2) He is in the fourth or fifth grade and scored below mastery in English
2 language arts on the state assessment administered the prior school year.

3 (3) His eligibility cannot be determined according to the measures provided
4 in Paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Subsection due to the lack of literacy assessment or
5 state assessment results but he is recommended by his English language arts teacher
6 for the participation in the program due to the student's reading difficulties.

7 C. The state Department of Education shall administer and provide for the 8 implementation of the program. In administering the program, the department shall:

9 (1) Require public school governing authorities to establish a schedule for 10 participating students to receive books in conjunction with the book fair schedule for 11 the schools under their jurisdiction.

12 (2) Develop an application process for parents of qualifying students to 13 enroll their children in the program.

14 (3) Publish on its website information about the program.

15 (4) Develop online support materials that may assist parents in developing 16 their child's literacy skills.

17 (5) Develop a list of high-quality books and other reading materials
18 encompassing diverse subjects and genres for each grade level to be mailed to 19 students in the program.

20 (6) Support local implementation of the program by providing marketing
21 materials to schools and school districts to assist with public awareness campaigns.

22 (7) Report by October thirtieth annually on its website the number of 23 students participating in the program from each school or school district.

24 D. The provisions of this Section shall be implemented to the extent that the 25 legislature appropriates funds for this purpose.

2022 Regular Session

Schlegel

Abstract: Creates a book delivery program for certain public school students.

Proposed law creates a program for certain public school students in kindergarten through the 5th grade in which books and other reading materials are sent to the students' homes.

Proposed law provides that a public school student who is in one of the following categories is eligible for the program:

- (1) Enrolled in kindergarten or the first, second, or third grade and reads below grade level or is at risk for reading difficulties according to a literacy assessment.
- (2) Enrolled in the fourth or fifth grade and scored below mastery in English language arts on the state assessment in the prior school year.
- (3) Enrolled in kindergarten through the 5th grade, lacks a literacy or English language arts assessment result, and is recommended for the program by an English teacher.

Proposed law requires the Dept. of Education to administer the program. Further requires the department to:

- (1) Develop an application process and accept applications.
- (2) Publish information about the program on the department's website.
- (3) Provide marketing materials to schools and school districts.
- (4) Develop a list of books for each grade level.
- (5) Annually report the number of participating students on its website.

Proposed law requires public school governing authorities to establish a schedule for participating students to receive books.

Proposed law provides that the program shall be implemented based on the appropriation of funds.
