2022 Regular Session

Green

Abstract: Requires that school master plans for improving behavior and discipline be submitted annually to the state Dept. of Education.

Present law requires each public school board to develop and submit a master plan for each school under its jurisdiction for improving behavior and discipline. Requires that the plan be based on the model master plan developed and approved by the State Bd. of Elementary and Secondary Education. Proposed law retains present law.

Present law requires each school board's plan to have been submitted by Oct. 1, 2004. Proposed law instead provides for it to be submitted by Oct. 1st annually and specifies that the recipient of the submission is the state Dept. of Education.

Effective upon signature of governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.

(Amends R.S. 17:252(B))
