

2022 Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 1006

BY REPRESENTATIVE MAGEE

LEGISLATIVE AGENCIES: Provides relative to the Louisiana State Law Institute

1 AN ACT

2 To amend and reenact R.S. 24:202(A)(5), (6) and (24), (B), and (G), relative to the
3 Louisiana State Law Institute; to provide relative to council membership; to provide
4 relative to law school membership; to provide relative to practicing attorney
5 membership; to provide relative to meeting agendas; and to provide for related 6 matters.

7 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

8 Section 1. R.S. 24:202(A)(5), (6), and (24), (B), and (G) are hereby amended and 9 reenacted to read as follows:

10 §202. Council; membership; terms; vacancies; meetings

11 A. The governing body of the Louisiana State Law Institute shall be a
12 council composed of ex officio members and elected members. The ex officio 13 members shall be:

14 * * *

15 (5) The attorney general of the state of Louisiana or his designee that is an 16 attorney and is employed within the department of justice.

17 (6) The executive counsel to the governor or his designee that is an attorney
18 and is employed by the governor.

19 * * *

- 1 (2) Agendas of all meetings shall be emailed to the members of the 2 legislature at their district offices and legislative email accounts.
-

DIGEST

The digest printed below was prepared by House Legislative Services. It constitutes no part of the legislative instrument. The keyword, one-liner, abstract, and digest do not constitute part of the law or proof or indicia of legislative intent. [R.S. 1:13(B) and 24:177(E)]

HB 1006 Original

2022 Regular Session

Magee

Abstract: Provides relative to the La. State Law Institute's governing body membership and meetings.

Present law provides that the governing body of the La. State Law Institute shall be a council composed of ex officio members and elected members.

Present law provides that the attorney general shall be an ex officio member.

Proposed law retains present law and adds that the attorney general may designate an attorney in his place.

Present law provides that the executive counsel to the governor shall be an ex officio member.

Proposed law retains present law and adds that the executive counsel to the governor may designate an attorney in his place.

Present law provides that the executive director of the La. District Attorneys Association shall be an ex officio member.

Proposed law retains present law and adds that the executive director of the La. District Attorneys Association may designate an individual in his place.

Present law provides for the elected membership of the council consisting of 31 members.

Present law provides that three members shall be elected from Louisiana State University School of Law, three members from Loyola University School of Law, three members from Southern University School of Law, and three members from Tulane University School of Law.

Proposed law retains present law but provides that the members chosen by the law schools shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate.

Present law provides that 19 members shall be elected from among the practicing attorneys of La.

Proposed law retains present law but provides that the Senate may appoint 10 members and the House of Representatives may appoint nine members. Proposed law provides that any member of the Senate and House of Representatives may nominate a practicing attorney who is not a member of the legislature. Such nomination shall be delivered to the office of the president pro tempore and office of the speaker pro tempore, respectively.

Proposed law provides that for Senate-nominated candidates, the nominations shall be delivered to the Committee on Senate and Governmental Affairs, and for House of Representative-nominated candidates, the nominations shall be delivered to the Committee on House and Governmental Affairs.

Proposed law provides that the rosters of attorneys shall be approved by the Senate and House of Representatives.

Present law provides that meetings of the La. State Law Institute shall be subject to the Open Meetings Law and Public Records Law.

Proposed law retains present law but provides that the agendas of all meetings shall be emailed to the members of the legislature at their district and legislative email accounts.

(Amends R.S. 24:202(A)(5), (6), and (24), (B), and (G))