DIGEST 2022 Regular Session

Morris

Present constitution provides for mandatory granting of bail when the maximum sentence a defendant faces is less than five years, but gives the judge discretion to grant bail when the maximum sentence which may be imposed is greater than five years.

Proposed constitutional amendment deletes the provision for granting of bail after a defendant has been convicted but has not yet been sentenced, and adds that the person may be bailable in accordance with any provision of law.

Proposed constitutional amendment otherwise retains present constitution.

Specifies submission of the amendment to the voters at the statewide election to be held on November 8, 2022.

(Amends Const. Art. I, Sec. 18(A))
