13 A. For the purposes of this Section, the following terms shall have the 14 following meanings, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:
15 (1) "Project" means a business that expands or commences operations in a 16 regional economic development organization's area because of qualified 17 expenditures made by the regional economic development organization pursuant to 18 the provisions of this Chapter.
19 (2) "Sales tax" means the sales tax on the sale at retail, the use, the lease or 20 rental, the consumption and storage for use or consumption of tangible personal 21 property, and on sales of services, all as defined in R.S. 47:301 et seq.
22 (3) "Sales tax baseline" means the total collected sales tax from taxpayers
23 located within the tax increment boundaries of a project in the year immediately 24 prior to the year in which the project's tax increment boundaries were established.
25 B. The Department of Economic Development shall establish appropriate 26 sales tax increment boundaries for each project and determine, in conjunction with 27 the Department of Revenue, the sales tax baseline for each such project. In no event 28 shall the tax increment boundaries of any project in an area overlap with those of 29 another. The secretary of the Department of Revenue shall transfer to the state 30 treasurer for deposit into the appropriate subfund established pursuant to the 31 provisions of this Chapter an amount equal to five percent of any sales tax collected 32 above the sales tax baseline within a project's tax increment boundaries.
33 C. The Department of Economic Development shall promulgate emergency 34 rules pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act for the initial implementation of 35 the provisions of this Chapter. Notwithstanding any provision of the Administrative 36 Procedure Act to the contrary, the following committees shall have oversight over 37 such emergency rules: the House Committee on Commerce, the House Committee 38 on Appropriations, the Senate Committee on Finance, and the Senate Committee on
