SB 26 Reengrossed

2023 Regular Session

Foil

Present law requires that the Ethics Adjudicatory Board to give public notice of its hearings that are conducted pursuant to present law.

Proposed law retains present law and further requires the Ethics Adjudicatory Board to mail notice to the address at which the subject of the hearing was served with the charges pending before the board or an address provided by the respondent or the respondent's attorney of record after service was made.
