CRIME/HOMICIDE: Provides relative to vehicular homicide

Synopsis of Senate Amendments

1. Makes the order for restitution permissive rather than mandatory.

Digest of Bill as Finally Passed by Senate

Present law provides for restitution to crime victims.

Proposed law retains present law and allows the court to order the offender to make payments to the victim's minor child until the child reaches the age of 18. Proposed law further provides that if the child reaches the age of 18 and is enrolled in a program of study which upon completion will entitle him to be issued a high school equivalency diploma, then the restitution will continue to be paid until he earns such diploma or reaches the age of 21, whichever first occurs.

Proposed law provides that the court will calculate the restitution payments using the guidelines set forth under present law.

Proposed law specifies that if the court orders restitution and a judgment was obtained from a civil suit in favor of the surviving parent or guardian, the restitution order shall adopt the civil judgment.

Present law provides that the crime of vehicular homicide is the killing of a human being caused by an offender engaged in the operation of any motor vehicle, aircraft, watercraft, or other means of conveyance while the offender was under the influence of alcohol, a controlled dangerous substance, or a combination of both that was a contributing factor to the killing. Present law also provides penalties for the crime of vehicular homicide.

Proposed law retains present law and provides that in addition to the penalties provided in present law, a person convicted of a violation of present law may be ordered to make restitution as provided in present law.

Provides that proposed law will be referred to as "Cody's Law".
