EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated impact to expenditures as a result of proposed legislation. LDE reports a new course code will need to be created, but this can be executed by existing personnel. If public schools and school systems opt to offer such courses, they may experience increased costs associated with developing or purchasing curriculum for the courses, hiring staff to teach the additional courses, and the purchasing of texts; however, the amount of these costs is indeterminable. Costs will vary by school and school system and be dependent on whether they exercise the option to offer such courses.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
