Abstract: Provides relative to the crime of obscenity.

Present law provides for the crime of obscenity and provides for elements and penalties.

Proposed law retains present law.

Present law provides for definitions of certain terms. Further defines the term "recognized and established schools" as schools having a full time faculty and pupils, gathered together for instruction in a diversified curriculum.

Proposed law amends present law to provide that the term "recognized and established schools" shall not include any public school that includes kindergarten through grade 12 or any combination thereof.
