HOUSE BILL NO. 716

BY REPRESENTATIVE OWEN

LICENSING: Provides for universal recognition of occupational licenses

1 AN ACT

2 To enact Chapter 1-E of Title 37 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, to be comprised
3 of R.S. 37:51 through 58, relative to universal occupational license recognition; to 4 provide for definitions; to provide for conditions for application; to provide for 5 occupational licensing requirements; to provide for jurisprudential examination; to 6 provide for board decisions on applications; to provide for appeals of a board
7 decision on applications; to provide for state law and jurisdiction; to provide for 8 exemptions; to provide for limitations; and to provide for related matters.

9 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

10 Section 1. Chapter 1-E of Title 37 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950,
11 comprised of R.S. 37:51 through 58, is hereby enacted to read as follows:

12 CHAPTER 1-E. WELCOME HOME ACT

13 §51. Definitions

14 The words defined in this Section have the meanings given them for purposes
15 of this Chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

16 (1) "Board" means any state executive branch board, commission,
17 department, or other agency that regulates the entry of persons into a particular
18 profession or occupation or that is authorized to issue or revoke occupational licenses
19 or certifications.

1 (2) "Occupational License" means a nontransferable authorization issued by
2 a state to an individual to legally practice or engage in a regulated profession or 3 occupation.

4 (3) "Other state" or "another state" means any United States territory or state
5 in the United States other than this state.

6 (4) "Scope of practice" means the procedures, actions, processes, and work
7 that a person may perform under an occupational license or certification issued in 8 this state.

9 §52. Occupational license or certification

10 A. Notwithstanding any other law, a board shall issue an occupational 11 license or certification to a person upon application, if all the following apply:

12 (1) The applicant holds a current and valid occupational license or 13 certification in another state in a lawful occupation with a similar scope of practice,
14 as determined by the board in this state.

15 (2) The applicant has held the occupational license or certification in the 16 other state for at least one year.

17 (3) The other state required the applicant to pass an examination, or to meet
18 education, training, or experience standards.

19 (4) The other state holds the applicant in good standing.

20 (5) The applicant does not have a disqualifying criminal record as 21 determined by the board in this state under state law.

22 (6) The applicant does not have a disciplinary action or investigation pending
23 in another state. If the applicant has a disciplinary action or investigation pending,
24 the board in this state shall not issue or deny an occupational license or certification
25 to the person until the disciplinary action or investigation is resolved or the person
26 otherwise meets the criteria for an occupational license or certification in this state
27 to the satisfaction of the board in this state.

28 (7) The applicant pays all applicable fees in this state.

1 B. If another state issued the applicant a certification, but this state requires
2 an occupational license to work, the board in this state shall issue an occupational
3 license to the applicant if the applicant otherwise satisfies Subsection A of this
4 Section.

5 §53. State law examination

6 A board may require an applicant to pass a jurisprudential examination
7 specific to relevant state laws that regulate the occupation if an occupational license
8 or certification in this state requires an applicant to pass a jurisprudential
9 examination specific to relevant state statutes and administrative rules that regulate
10 the occupation or certification.

11 §54. Decision

12 The board shall provide an applicant with a written decision regarding the 13 application within sixty days after receiving a complete application.

14 §55. Appeal

15 A. An applicant may appeal the board's decision to a court of general
16 jurisdiction.

17 B. An applicant may appeal any of the following:

18 (1) The board's denial of an occupational license or certification.

19 (2) The board's determination of the occupation or certification.

20 (3) The board's determination of the similarity of the scope of practice of the 21 occupational license or certification issued.

22 §56. State laws and jurisdiction

23 A person who obtains an occupational license or certification pursuant to this
24 Chapter is subject to all of the following:

25 (1) The laws regulating the occupation in this state.

26 (2) The jurisdiction of the board in this state.

27 §57. Exceptions

28 This Chapter does not apply to an occupation regulated by the state supreme 29 court.

- 1 §58. Limitations
- 2 A. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to prohibit a person from
- 3 applying for an occupational license or certification under another statute or rule in
- 4 state law.
- 5 B. An occupational license or certification issued pursuant to this Chapter
- 6 is valid only in this state. It does not make the person eligible to work in another
- 7 state under an interstate compact or reciprocity agreement unless otherwise provided
- 8 in law.
- 9 C. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to prevent this state from
- 10 entering into a licensing compact or reciprocity agreement with another state, foreign
- 11 province, foreign country, international organization, or other entity.
- 12 D. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to prevent this state from
- 13 recognizing occupational credentials issued by a private certification organization,
- 14 foreign province, foreign country, international organization, or other entity.
- 15 E. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to require a private certification
- 16 organization to grant or deny private certification to any individual.

HB 716 Original 2024 Regular Session Owen

Abstract: Provides for universal recognition of occupational licenses.

Proposed law provides definitions for "board", "occupational license", "other state" or "another state", and "scope of practice".

Proposed law provides that notwithstanding any other law, a board shall issue an occupational license or certification to a person upon application, if all the following apply:

- (1) The applicant holds a current and valid occupational license or certification in another state in a lawful occupation with a similar scope of practice, as determined by the board in this state.
- (2) The applicant has held the occupational license or certification in the other state for at least one year.
- (3) The other state required the applicant to pass an examination, or to meet education, training, or experience standards.

- (4) The other state holds the applicant in good standing.
- (5) The applicant does not have a disqualifying criminal record as determined by the board in this state under state law.
- (6) The applicant does not have a disciplinary action or investigation pending in another state. If the applicant has a disciplinary action or investigation pending, the board in this state shall not issue or deny an occupational license or certification to the person until the disciplinary action or investigation is resolved or the person otherwise meets the criteria for an occupational license or certification in this state to the satisfaction of the board in this state.
- (7) The applicant pays all applicable fees in this state.

Proposed law provides that if another state issued the applicant a certification, but this state requires an occupational license to work, the board in this state shall issue an occupational license to the applicant if the applicant otherwise satisfies proposed law.

Proposed law provides that a board may require an applicant to pass a jurisprudential examination specific to relevant state laws that regulate the occupation if an occupational license or certification in this state requires an applicant to pass a jurisprudential examination specific to relevant state statutes and administrative rules that regulate the occupation or certification.

Proposed law provides that the board shall provide an applicant with a written decision regarding the application within 60 days after receiving a complete application.

Proposed law provides that an applicant may appeal the board's decision to a court of general jurisdiction. An applicant may appeal any of the following:

- (1) The board's denial of an occupational license or certification.
- (2) The board's determination of the occupation or certification.
- (3) The board's determination of the similarity of the scope of practice of the occupational license or certification issued.

Proposed law provides that a person who obtains an occupational license or certification pursuant to proposed law is subject to the laws regulating the occupation in this state and the jurisdiction of the board in this state.

Proposed law does not apply to an occupation regulated by the state supreme court.

Proposed law provides that nothing in proposed law shall be construed to prohibit a person from applying for an occupational license or certification under another statute or rule in state law.

Proposed law provides that an occupational license or certification issued pursuant proposed law is valid only in this state. It does not make the person eligible to work in another state under an interstate compact or reciprocity agreement unless otherwise provided in law.

Proposed law provides that nothing in proposed law shall be construed to prevent this state from entering into a licensing compact or reciprocity agreement with another state, foreign province, foreign country, international organization, or other entity.

Proposed law provides that nothing in proposed law shall be construed to prevent this state from recognizing occupational credentials issued by a private certification organization, foreign province, foreign country, international organization, or other entity.

Proposed law provides that nothing in proposed law shall be construed to require a private certification organization to grant or deny private certification to any individual.
