SB 233 Reengrossed

DIGEST
2024 Regular Session

Miguez

Present law (R.S. 40:1379.1.3) permits an individual who is a qualified law enforcement officer to carry a concealed firearm anywhere in the state, including any place open to the public, if he meets certain eligibility criteria.

Present law (R.S. 40:1379.1.4) permits an individual who is a qualified retired law enforcement officer to carry a concealed firearm anywhere in the state, including any place open to the public, if he meets certain eligibility criteria.

Proposed law retains present law and provides that a business organization operating a venue shall be subject to a civil fine of $1,000 per occurrence to be paid to the Department of Justice for each violation of the provisions of present law, permitting a qualified law enforcement officer or a qualified retired law enforcement officer to carry a concealed firearm.

Proposed law provides that the attorney general shall have the authority to bring a civil action arising out of any violation of the provisions of proposed law, in addition to any other authority granted by the Constitution and laws of this state.

Effective August 1, 2024.

(Adds R.S. 40:1379.1.3(D) and (E) and 1379.1.4(F) and (G))
