Abstract: Provides for the allocation of space within the state capitol for use of the legislature.

Present Joint Rule provides that in the state capitol, the 7th through 12th floors and the 22nd and 23rd floors are allocated to the House; the 13th floor is allocated to the Legislative Budgetary Control Council for housing the library and the Huey P. Long Library collection; and the 14th through 17th floors and 24th and 25th floors are allocated to the Senate.

Proposed Joint Rule provides instead that the 7th through 12th floors and the 24th floor are allocated to the House; the 13th floor is allocated to the House for housing the David R. Poynter Legislative Research Library; the 14th floor is allocated to the Senate for housing the Huey P. Long Memorial Law Library; and the 15th through 17th floors are allocated to the Senate; all other floors of the state capitol available for the use of the legislature shall be allocated as jointly determined by the speaker and the president.
