HOUSE BILL NO. 586

BY REPRESENTATIVE MCMAKIN

Prefiled pursuant to Article III, Section 2(A)(4)(b)(i) of the Constitution of Louisiana.

CONSTITUTION/CONVENTION: Provides for calling a constitutional convention

1 AN ACT

2 To provide for the calling of a constitutional convention for the purpose of framing a new 3 constitution; to provide for legislative findings; to fix the time and place for the 4 convention; to provide for the delegates of the convention; to provide for the 5 organization and staff of the convention; to require that the constitution as adopted 6 by the convention be submitted to the qualified electors for adoption and to provide 7 relative to such submission; to provide for the application of specified laws, 8 including provisions of law containing criminal penalties, to delegates and staff of 9 the convention; to provide for the disbursement of funds for the convention and 10 otherwise provide with respect to funds for the convention; to fix the effective date 11 of the new constitution if approved by the electorate; to provide for an effective date; 12 and to provide for related matters.

13 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

14 Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature finds that:

15 (A) It has been over fifty years since the Constitution of Louisiana became effective 16 at midnight on December 31, 1974, and during these years the document which constitutes 17 the state's basic law has been amended two hundred twenty-one times. At more than 18 seventy-five thousand words, the Constitution of Louisiana is one of the top five largest 19 constitutions in the nation.

20 (B) The constitution today contains too many provisions that restrict the legislature 21 from effectively addressing state and constituent needs, and the document also includes

1 extensive provisions that are so detailed as to be statutory rather than constitutional in nature 2 and, as a result, require continual constitutional amendment when change is needed.

3 (C) The state constitution needs to be streamlined to the fundamental and 4 foundational law of the state, including the basic principles of the state, the structure of 5 government, and the fundamental rights of citizens. Other extremely detailed provisions in 6 the constitution should be transitioned out of the constitution and made statutory to allow 7 for flexibility and innovation in legislative solutions to problems of the present and the 8 future.

9 Section 2. Call for convention; delegates. (A) A constitutional convention is hereby 10 called, to convene on Tuesday, December 2, 2025 at 12:00 noon, which shall be held for the 11 purpose of framing a new constitution for the state of Louisiana.

12 (B)(1) There shall be one hundred five delegates to the convention who shall be 13 selected as follows:

14 (a) Two delegates shall be elected from each of the following parishes: Ascension
15 Parish, Bossier Parish, Caddo Parish, Calcasieu Parish, East Baton Rouge Parish, Jefferson 16 Parish, Lafayette Parish, Livingston Parish, Orleans Parish, Ouachita Parish, Rapides Parish, 17 St. Tammany Parish, Tangipahoa Parish, and Terrebonne Parish.

18 (b) One delegate shall be elected from each of the remaining parishes.

19 (c) One delegate shall be appointed by each of the following: the Louisiana Supreme 20 Court, the Louisiana Conference of Court of Appeal Judges, the Louisiana District Judges
21 Association, the Louisiana District Attorneys Association, the Louisiana Sheriffs'
22 Association, the Louisiana Assessor's Association, the Louisiana Clerks of Court 23 Association, the Louisiana State Coroner's Association, the Louisiana Municipal 24 Association, and the Police Jury Association of Louisiana.

25 (d) The commissioner of higher education, or if unable or unwilling to serve, a 26 delegate appointed by a majority vote of the Board of Regents.

27 (e) The state superintendent of education, or if unable or unwilling to serve, a 28 delegate appointed by a majority vote of the State Board of Elementary and Secondary 29 Education.

1 (f) Fifteen delegates shall be appointed by the governor, none of whom shall be the 2 governor or a member of the governor's executive staff.

3 (2) Each delegate to the convention shall be an elector of the state of Louisiana, shall 4 be at least eighteen years of age and shall be a resident of the state of Louisiana. In addition,
5 each delegate elected from a parish shall be a resident of the parish from which he is elected 6 at the time he qualifies as a candidate for election as a delegate. Any public official of the 7 governmental subdivisions of the state, whether holding office by election or appointment, 8 if otherwise qualified, shall be eligible for election or appointment as a delegate of the 9 convention.

10 (3) The secretary of state shall issue a commission to each delegate.

11 (4)(a) The service of a legislator or other public official or public employee as a 12 delegate to the convention and the employment or appointment of any public official or 13 public employee to the staff of the convention and his service on such staff, as authorized 14 and provided in this Act, shall not be construed to constitute dual officeholding or dual 15 employment within the prohibitions of Part III of Chapter 2 of Title 42 of the Louisiana
16 Revised Statutes of 1950.

17 (b) The service of a judge as a delegate to the convention shall not be construed as 18 grounds for recusal.

19 (c) Each delegate shall be considered to be an elected official within the scope of and 20 subject to the provisions of the Code of Governmental Ethics, Chapter 15 of Title 42 of the 21 Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950. Each staff member of the convention shall be 22 considered to be a public employee within the scope of and subject to the provisions of the 23 Code of Governmental Ethics, Chapter 15 of Title 42 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 24 1950. For purposes of Chapter 15 of Title 42 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, the 25 agency and the governmental entity of delegates and staff members of the convention shall 26 be the convention. For purposes of any other office or employment of any such delegate or 27 staff member, the provisions of Chapter 15 of Title 42 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 28 1950 shall remain applicable.

29 (d) Each delegate to the convention and each staff member of the convention shall 30 be considered to be a public officer, public official, public employee, or person in a position

5 period of time from Tuesday, December 2, 2025, through Friday, October 2, 2026.

6 (f) The provisions of the Public Records Law shall apply to the convention, its 7 committees, and delegates to the same extent and with the same limitations as applicable to 8 records of the legislature and members of the legislature.

9 (g) The provisions of the Open Meetings Law shall apply to the convention and its 10 committees in the same manner as applicable to the legislature and either house or 11 committees thereof.

12 (5) Any attorney at law serving as a delegate to the convention or as a member of 13 the staff of the convention shall be entitled to the absolute right of the continuance of any 14 case in which he is bona fide counsel of record in any court of the state during his attendance 15 upon the sessions of the convention or meetings of its committees of which he is a member.

16 (C)(1) The election for the delegates to the convention from each parish shall be held 17 at the open primary election to be held on Saturday, October 11, 2025. The governor shall 18 make proclamation and give notice of the election to be held under this Subsection not less 19 than forty-five days before the date of said election. Each person desiring to become a 20 candidate for election as a delegate from a parish shall qualify as a candidate from the parish 21 in which he resides by filing a statement of candidacy with the secretary of state beginning
22 Wednesday, July 9, 2025, and ending Friday, July 11, 2025. Qualification as a candidate 23 shall be without regard to party affiliation. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the 25 accordance with the Louisiana Election Code. All qualified electors shall be entitled to vote 26 without regard to party affiliation. The costs of the election shall be paid as provided in the 27 Louisiana Election Code for elections in which a constitutional amendment appears on the 28 ballot.

29 (2) Delegates shall be elected by the qualified electors participating in the election 30 in the manner provided in the Louisiana Election Code for the election of candidates. The

1 candidate receiving a majority of the total vote in each parish and candidates who are 2 unopposed shall be declared elected. In the event that no candidate receives a majority of 3 the votes cast in a parish on Saturday, October 11, 2025, the candidates who received the 4 greatest and second greatest number of votes shall be voted on at the general election on 5 Saturday, November 15, 2025. In the event that the candidates in a parish receive the same 6 number of votes at the general election, the delegate shall be selected by a public drawing 7 of lots conducted by the State Board of Election Supervisors. If any such candidate dies or 8 withdraws leaving one candidate remaining, the remaining candidate shall be declared 9 elected.

10 Section 3. Vacancies. (A) In the event of the resignation, death, or inability to serve 11 due to a documented illness of an elected delegate, whether before or during the convention, 12 the governing authority of the parish that elected the delegate shall fill such vacancy by 13 appointment of a person from the same parish who possesses the qualifications provided in 14 Section 2 of this Act.

15 (B) In the event of the resignation, death, or inability due to a documented illness 16 of an appointed delegate to serve, whether before or during the convention, the vacancy shall

27 constitution shall provide that such provisions made statutory and contained in the dedicated 28 statutory title, which shall be established as Title 57, may only be changed by law adopted 29 by two-thirds of the elected members of each house of the legislature.

2 shall be null and void and of no effect.

4 to determine the scope of authority of the convention, or to determine the conformity of any 5 action of the convention with the provisions of this Act shall be brought in the Nineteenth

11 Section 5.(A) The provisions of the proposed revision of the constitution shall be 12 severable. If any provision of the proposed revision of the constitution is deemed null and 13 void and of no effect by final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction after adoption 14 by the convention but prior to its submission to the electors, then the provision deemed null
15 and void shall be removed from the proposed revision of the constitution by the Secretary 16 of State and the remainder of the proposed revision of the constitution shall be submitted to 17 the electors in accordance with this Act.

18 (B) If any provision of the revision of the constitution, or the application thereof, is 19 deemed invalid after ratification by the electors, such invalidity shall not affect other 20 provisions, items, or applications of the revision which can be given effect without the 21 invalid provision, item, or application.

22 Section 6. Convention organization. (A)(1) The delegates to the convention chosen 23 as provided in this Act shall convene in the House Chamber in the state capitol on Tuesday,
