

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 6

BY SENATORS CLOUD AND BARROW

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

To designate Monday, April 21, 2025, as Light of Justice and Resilience Day in Louisiana, recognizing it as a statewide day of reflection and support for survivors of religious clergy sexual abuse and honoring their resilience, pursuit of justice, and journey of healing.

WHEREAS, survivors of sexual abuse by clergy have experienced profound trauma, betrayal, and loss, with many carrying the weight of their experiences for years without acknowledgment or justice; and

WHEREAS, survivors of religious clergy sexual abuse have bravely come forward to share their stories, shining a light on the abuse they endured and advocating for change within institutions and society; and

WHEREAS, these survivors have become voices for justice, leading efforts to hold perpetrators accountable, reform institutional practices, and ensure the protection of future generations from abuse; and

WHEREAS, the month of April is nationally recognized as Sexual Assault Awareness Month, a time to raise public awareness about sexual violence and educate communities on how to prevent it; and

WHEREAS, National Crime Victims' Rights Week, recognized annually by the U.S. Department of Justice, is observed in April to honor crime victims and highlight the progress made in ensuring justice and support for survivors; and

WHEREAS, designating Monday, April 21, 2025, as Light of Justice and Resilience Day will provide an opportunity for communities throughout Louisiana to honor survivors of religious clergy sexual abuse and stand in solidarity with their pursuit of healing and justice; and

WHEREAS, this day will serve as a powerful reminder that survivors are not alone, their voices matter, and their resilience paves the way for a safer and more just society; and

WHEREAS, through education, remembrance, and action, Light of Justice and Resilience Day will promote awareness, foster healing, and inspire continued advocacy for survivor rights and protections; and

WHEREAS, the state of Louisiana remains committed to supporting survivors of sexual abuse, addressing the impacts of trauma, and ensuring justice through survivor-centered policies and programs.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby designate Monday, April 21, 2025, as Light of Justice and Resilience Day in Louisiana to honor the courage and strength of survivors of religious clergy sexual abuse and to promote statewide reflection on justice, healing, and resilience.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to TentMakers of Louisiana, in recognition of their steadfast advocacy for survivors and their continued efforts to promote healing and justice.
