DIGEST

Present law defines "net proceeds" as gross lottery revenues minus amounts paid or estimated to be paid as prizes and expenses of operation of the lottery.

Proposed law excludes donations collected by the Louisiana Lottery Corporation for certain special instant games from the definition of "net proceeds".

Proposed law requires the board to offer a special instant game entitled "Ticket for the Cure".

Proposed law provides that the president shall determine the cost for each ticket and mandates that no ticket shall be issued unless a donation of two dollars is collected with the purchase of the ticket.

Proposed law provides that the corporation shall collect the donation for each ticket sold from each retailer and forward the donation to the American Cancer Society, Mid-South Division.

Effective August 15, 2011.
