DIGEST

Present law provides for three exceptions to the requirement that unemployment benefits paid are included in the experience rating records of employers.

Proposed law provides for a fourth exception stating that when the payment of benefits is caused by an act or omission of a third party, such benefits shall not be included in the experience rating of such employer.

Proposed law provides that such a determination of fault of a third party shall be determined by the U.S. Coast Guard or any other entity designated by the Oil Pollution Act, 33 U.S.C. 2701, et seq.

Effective August 15, 2011.
