DIGEST

Present law establishes the Budget Stabilization Fund in the state treasury and provides the following revenues are to be deposited into the fund:

- (1) Monies available for appropriation in excess of the expenditure limit.
- (2) All mineral revenues received by the state in each fiscal year in excess of the base, which, by legislative act, was increased to $850 million.
- (3) 25% of any monies recognized by the Revenue Estimating Conference as nonrecurring.
- (4) Any other monies appropriated to the fund by the legislature including the balance of any monies declared to be nonrecurring.

Proposed law retains present law.

Present law permits up to 1/3 of the Budget Stabilization Fund, subject to 2/3 approval of each house of the legislature, to be incorporated in the next fiscal year's official forecast if revenue estimates for the next fiscal year are less than the official forecast for the current fiscal year. Present law further permits up to 1/3 of the Budget Stabilization Fund, subject to 2/3 approval of each house of the legislature, to be appropriated for the current fiscal year budget if a deficit for the current fiscal year is projected due to a decrease in the official forecast.

Proposed law retains present law.

Proposed law provides that if the balance in the fund is at its maximum and money in the fund is made available for appropriation or use as provided in present law, beginning in fiscal year 2011, no deposit to the fund of mineral revenues shall be made in the fiscal year for which money in the fund is appropriated or for which money in the fund is incorporated into the official forecast nor for the ensuing fiscal year. Proposed law further provides that all other deposits, except mineral revenues, shall continue to be made to the fund in the fiscal year for which money in the fund is appropriated or incorporated into the official forecast or for the ensuing fiscal year.

Section 1 of proposed law becomes effective and operative if the amendment of Article VII, Section 10.3(C) of the Constitution of Louisiana contained in the Act which originated as SB ____ of the 2011 RS is adopted at the statewide election to be held on October 22, 2011, and at the same time as such proposed amendment becomes effective. Sections 2 and 3 of the Act, which are the effective date provisions, become effective on July 1, 2011.
