EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. The current staff of the Board of Ethics will be utilized to process the registration payments made by persons registering as local lobbyists.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

The bill requires those who register as a local government lobbyist for the year 2012 and thereafter to pay a $110 annual registration fee, which is classified as self-generated revenues. There are currently about 80 persons registered as local lobbyists. If those that are currently registered renewed their registration, there would be a self-generated revenue increase of $8,800 annually. These local government lobbyists are not currently required to pay this registration fee.
