Provides for a Ten Commandments monument on the state capitol grounds

Proposed bill provides for the commissioner of administration to permit and arrange for the placement on the state capitol grounds a suitable monument displaying the Ten Commandments. Proposed bill provides for the commissioner to designate the location of the monument and shall oversee its installation, but design, construction, placement and maintenance costs will not impact the state. Proposed legislation provides for the commissioner to consider and select proposals from private entities for the installation of the monument and consider the following: appropriateness of the proposed design, demonstrated ability of the responsible entity to pay for the cost of design, construction, installation and maintenance of the monument. The selection will be made by December 31, 2011. Proposed legislation provides for the monument to not exceed 6 feet in height by 4 feet deep. Proposed legislation provides that the text on the monument shall mirror the text ruled constitutional by the U.S. Supreme Court in the case Van Orden vs. Perry.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. Any costs incurred by the Division of Administration (DOA) as a result of this legislation would be absorbed within the current resources of the agency. The DOA may incur minimal costs related to the evaluation of proposals and overseeing the installation of the monument. As per the legislation, the costs for design, construction and maintenance will not be state expenditures and would likely be incurred by a non-state organization.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
