HOUSE SUMMARY OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

House Bill No. 200 by Representative McVea

HIGHWAYS: Renames the John James Audubon Bridge as the Generals John A. Lejeune-Robert H. Barrow Bridge

Synopsis of Senate Amendments

1. Deletes provisions of the proposed law that renames the John James Audubon Bridge to the Generals John A. Lejeune-Robert H. Barrow Bridge.

2. Adds a provision to name the east approach to the bridge on LA 10 in West Feliciana Parish as "General Robert H. Barrow Memorial Approach".

3. Adds a provision to name the west approach to the bridge on LA 10 in Pointe Coupee Parish as "General John A. Lejeune Memorial Approach".

4. Adds a provision that requires DOTD to erect informational historical monuments at appropriate sites within the vicinity of the approaches memorializing the achievements of the generals and their respective relationship to the parishes.

Digest of Bill as Finally Passed by Senate

Retains name of bridge crossing the Mississippi River between Pointe Coupee and West Feliciana Parishes as the John James Audubon Bridge.

Names east approach to the bridge on LA 10 in West Feliciana Parish as "General Robert H. Barrow Memorial Approach".

Names west approach to the bridge on LA 10 in Pointe Coupee Parish as "General John A. Lejeune Memorial Approach."

Requires DOTD to erect informational historical monuments at appropriate sites within the vicinity of the approaches memorializing the achievements of the generals and their respective relationship to the parishes of West Feliciana and Pointe Coupee.