ENROLLED

SENATE BILL NO. 32

BY SENATORS BROOME, CLAITOR, DONAHUE, MURRAY AND WILLARD-LEWIS (On Recommendation of the Louisiana State Law Institute)

Prefiled pursuant to Article III, Section 2(A)(4)(b)(i) of the Constitution of Louisiana.

1 AN ACT 2 To amend and reenact Children's Code Articles 116(12.1), 675(B)(3), 681, 1511, 1515(B) and 1516(B), and to enact Children's Code Articles 718, 719, 720, 721, 722, 723, 724 3 4 and 1514(D), relative to guardianship; to define guardianship; to provide for 5 dispositional alternatives; to provide for the purpose of guardianship; to provide for the guardian's rights and responsibilities; to provide for a home study report; to 6 7 provide for certain procedures; to provide for a motion, hearing, and order for 8 guardianship; and to provide for related matters. 9 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana: Section 1. Children's Code Articles 116(12.1), 675(B)(3), 681, 1511, 1515(B) and 10 1516(B) are hereby amended and reenacted, and Children's Code Articles 718, 719, 720, 11 721, 722, 723, 724 and 1514(D) are hereby enacted, to read as follows: 12 13 Art. 116. Definitions Except where the context clearly indicates otherwise, these definitions apply 14 15 for the following terms used throughout this Code. * 16 17 (12.1)(a) Legal guardianship "Guardianship" means the judicial 18 placement of a child under the duty and authority of a guardian to make important Page 1 of 16 Coding: Words which are struck through are deletions from existing law;

5	(i) The authority to consent to marriage, to enlistment in the armed forces of

8	(ii) The authority and duty of reasonable visitation, except to the extent that
9	such right of visitation has been limited by court order.
10	(III) The rights and responsibilities of legal custody.
11	(b) The term "legal guardian" means to the caretaker in such a relationship.

13	Comment - 2011
14	In this revision "guardian" is defined more broadly. See Ch.C. Art. 719. If
15	guardianship is granted, most parental rights and responsibilities are allocated to the
16	guardian. The child has been declared abused or neglected and since that
17	adjudication, continuing case review has confirmed that parental abandonment or
18	dereliction persists, thus precluding the safe return of the child to the parent's custody
19	or control. The modifier "legal" is omitted as redundant although "legal guardian"
20	is the term used by federal statutes. See, for example, the "Fostering Connections
21	to Success and Increasing Adoptions Act of 2008", Public Law 110-351, 42 U.S.C.

3	national adoption exchanges, including electronic exchange systems to facilitate
4	orderly and timely instate and interstate placements. For children whose
5	permanent plan is guardianship, the documentation shall include the facts and
6	circumstances supporting guardianship, including the reasons that the plan is
7	in the best interest of the child and that reunification with a parent and
8	adoption are not appropriate permanent plans. The documentation shall also
9	address the suitability and commitment of the proposed guardian to offer a
10	wholesome, stable home for the child throughout minority.

12	Comment - 2011
13	According to Ch.C. Art. 603(15), guardianship is a "permanent placement",
14	ending at the age of majority. See Ch.C. Art. 723(D). The juvenile court is required
15	to conduct a case review hearing at least every six months during the child's minority
16	until a permanent placement of the child has been achieved. "Wholesome" and
17	"stable" are used elsewhere in C.C. Art. 133 and Ch.C. Art. 702(C).

19	Art. 681. Dispositional alternatives
20	A. In a case in which a child has been adjudicated to be in need of care, the
21	child's health and safety shall be the paramount concern, and the court may do any
22	of the following:
23	(1) Place the child in the custody of a parent or such other suitable person on
24	such terms and conditions as deemed in the best interest of the child including but
25	not limited to the issuance of a protective order pursuant to Article 618.
26	(2) Place the child in the custody of a private or public institution or agency.
27	(3) Commit a child found to be mentally ill to a public or private mental
28	institution or institution for the mentally ill.
29	(4) Grant guardianship of the child to any individual a nonparent .
30	(5) Make such other disposition or combination of the above dispositions as

2	B. A child in need of care shall not be committed to the Department of
3	Public Safety and Corrections, nor shall such department accept a child in need of

5	Comment - 2011
6	The substance and procedure for guardianships is governed by Chapter 19 of this
7	Title.
8	* * *
9	Art. 718. Purpose of guardianship
10	A. The purpose of guardianship is to provide a permanent placement for
11	children when neither reunification with a parent nor adoption has been found
12	to be in their best interest; to encourage stability and permanence in the lives
13	of children who have been adjudicated to be in need of care and have been
14	removed from the custody of their parent; and to increase the opportunities for
15	the prompt permanent placement of children, especially with relatives, without
16	ongoing supervision by the department.
17	B. This Chapter is intended to ensure that the fundamental needs of
18	children are met and the constitutional rights of all parties are recognized and
19	enforced.
20	Comments - 2011
21	(a) Guardianship is a common law concept that is similar but not identical
22	to the civilian concept of tutorship. In 2004, the legislature approved a proposal to
23	add guardianship ("Legal guardianship" as it is known under federal law) as a
24	defined term in the Children's Code (Ch.C. Art. 116 (12.1) and to authorize the
25	juvenile court to appoint a guardian as a permanent plan for child. (Ch.C.

2	or as a last resort alternative, to place the child in the least restrictive most family-

7	Art. 702(C).
8	(b) In 2008, Congress enacted "Fostering Connections to Success and
9	Increasing Adoptions Act," P.L. 110-351, 42 U.S.C. 671 et al. It calls for the
10	expansion of the practice of appointing relatives as "guardians" for children who are
11	stranded in the foster care system. The statute provides incentives for states to
12	encourage these guardianships and provides federal funds for Title IV-E Social
13	Security Act subsidies to support relatives in assuming such responsibilities. The
14	authorization of subsidies will increase the use of guardianship as a permanent plan
15	for abused and neglected children.
16	(c) The 2009 State Plan submitted by the Department of Children and Family
17	Services commits the Department to this goal of increased guardianships and
18	clarifying the law and policy necessary for effective implementation. The Plan was
19	approved and funded by the federal government.
20	(d) Clarification of guardianship is important because judges are concerned
21	about exactly what the option entails, and caseworkers must be able to explain to
22	potential guardians their rights and obligations toward the child.

Art. 719. Guardian's rights and responsibilities

27 A. Unless the court specifies otherwise, a guardian shall exercise the 28 rights and responsibilities of legal custody and shall have the authority to 29 consent to the child's marriage, to consent to his enlistment in the armed forces 30 of the United States, and to make other decisions concerning the child, except

1	the right to consent to the child's adoption.
2	B. Guardianship does not subject the guardian to responsibility under
3	Civil Code Articles 2317 or 2318 for damage occasioned by the child.
4	C. The rights and responsibilities of administering the property of the
5	child are governed by the law of tutorship.
6	Comments - 2011
7	(a) The common law concept of guardianship encompasses both a
8	guardianship of the person and a guardianship of property. These new additions to
9	the Children's Code recognize only a version of guardianship of the child's person.
10	Even then, guardianship is a status that is authorized only for a court exercising
11	juvenile jurisdiction in a child in need of care case.
12	(b) Paragraph B is a reflection of a decision that in order to encourage
13	persons to become guardians for children, the liability accorded to tutors under Civil
14	Code Art. 2318 should not be applied to guardianship. A guardian would be liable
15	for his lack of adequate supervision or other negligence but is not otherwise subject
16	to strict liability. See C.C. Art. 2315. States are split on this issue; however, nine
17	states (Alaska, Delaware, Iowa, New Hampshire, North Carolina, North Dakota,
18	South Dakota and Tennessee) have explicitly either eliminated or severely limited
19	a guardian's liability. Thirteen other states limit tort liability to the parents of a child,
20	thus by implication, alleviating guardians from liability.
21	(c) Paragraph C contemplates that what would be known in common law
22	jurisdictions as a guardianship of property continues to lie within the jurisdiction of
23	district courts in tutorship actions. In order to avoid possible conflict with tutorship
24	as well as the lack of expertise of the juvenile courts concerning financial oversight,
25	the guardian is required to be appointed tutor before managing the property of the
26	child. See C.C. Art. 246 et seq.
27	Art. 720. Motion for guardianship
28	A. After a child has been adjudicated to be in need of care, a motion for
29	guardianship may be filed by the department, parent or counsel for the child.
30	B. The motion shall include all of the following:

Page 6 of 16 Coding: Words which are struck through are deletions from existing law; words in boldface type and underscored are additions.

ENROLLED

1	(1) The name and gender of the child, and the date and place of his
2	birth.
3	(2) A description of the mental and physical health of the child.
4	(3) The current placement of the child and when it began.
5	(4) The name and address of the proposed guardian and any
6	relationship to the child.
7	(5) The name and address of the parents of the child.
8	(6) A plain and concise statement of the facts on which the motion for
9	guardianship is sought and why neither adoption nor reunification with a
10	parent is in the best interest of the child.
11	C. If any of the information required by Paragraph B of this Article is
12	unknown, the motion shall state that fact. In addition, if the location of either
13	parent is unknown, the motion shall disclose efforts to locate him.
14	D. Unless not yet completed, the home study, as required by Article 721,
15	shall be attached to the motion. If not attached, it shall be submitted to the
16	court as soon as it is completed.
17	Comments – 2011
18	(a) In addition to those enumerated in Paragraph A, another individual could
19	seek to intervene in accordance with Article 707 for the purpose of being named
20	guardian or to object to the proceedings.
21	(b) By administrative Rule LAC 67:V., Chapter 41, Louisiana has adopted
22	a State Plan that qualifies for the federally funded subsidy authorized by the
23	"Fostering Connection to Success and Increasing Adoptions Act of 2008", P.L. 110-
24	351, 42 U.S.C. 671 et al. For subsidy, the child must be living with the proposed
25	guardian for at least six months and the placement must have been certified as a
26	foster home. A qualifying agreement must be finalized before the date of any
27	guardianship judgment.
28	(c) Guardianships that do not qualify for subsidy are permitted.
29	Art. 721. Home study report
30	The department shall submit to the court a confidential report of its

Page 7 of 16 Coding: Words which are struck through are deletions from existing law; words in boldface type and underscored are additions.

1	investigation and evaluation of the home of the proposed guardian. The report
2	shall include all of the following:
3	(1) The moral and financial fitness of the proposed guardian.
4	(2) The conditions of the home of the proposed guardian with respect to
5	health, adjustment, and other advantages or disadvantages for the child.
6	(3) The physical and mental condition of the child and his reaction to the
7	proposed guardianship.
8	(4) The plan for the child if the proposed guardian becomes incapable
9	of providing care.
10	Comments - 2011
11	(a) The source of this Article is Ch.C. Art. 1229(A). As a precaution for the
12	child's safety, a home study of a prospective guardian is just as important as it is for
13	an adoptive home. No new investigation is required. In most cases, because the
14	department has long sought a permanent plan for the child, it has already conducted
15	such an inquiry into the fitness of the guardian and his home. In adoptions, there is
16	no authorization for the department to delegate this investigation to any private
17	agency.
18	(b) Subparagraph (4) reflects best practices in case planning for the child.
19	Art. 722. Grounds; hearing; order
20	A. The mover shall have the burden of proving all of the following by
21	clear and convincing evidence:
22	(1) The child has been adjudicated to be in need of care.
23	(2) Neither adoption nor reunification with a parent is in the best interest
24	of the child.
25	(3) The child has resided for at least six months with the proposed
26	guardian, unless the court waives the residence requirement for good cause.
27	(4) The proposed guardian is able to provide a safe, stable, and
28	wholesome home for the child for the duration of minority.
29	B. If the child is twelve years of age or older, the court shall solicit and
30	consider his wishes in the matter.

1	C. The court shall hold a hearing before approving a guardianship and
2	shall, at the conclusion of the hearing, enter a written order that includes the
3	findings upon which the order is based.
4	Comment - 2011
5	In most cases, the child will have lived with the proposed guardian for some
6	period before the hearing. Similarly, as a "permanent placement" the child will
7	typically remain in the guardian's care throughout the child's minority. Paragraph
8	B is patterned on the similar requirement in an adoption. See for example, Ch.C.
9	Art. 1208(C).
10	Art. 723. Order of guardianship
11	A. The court may grant the motion and appoint a guardian for the child
12	if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the requirements of
13	Article 722 have been met and that the proposed guardianship is in the best
14	interest of the child.
15	B. The guardianship order shall address the frequency and nature of 16	visitation or contact between the child and his parent, as necessary to ensure the
17	health, safety, and best interest of the child.
18	C. The guardianship order may require the parent to contribute to the
19	support of the child to the extent the court finds the parent is able pursuant to
20	Article 685.
21	D. The guardianship order continues until the child obtains eighteen
22	years of age, unless earlier modified or terminated by the court in accordance
23	with Article 724.
24	Comment - 2011
25	The court's authority to limit frequency of visitation includes the authority to
26	forbid contact with the parent altogether. If there is proof by clear and convincing
27	evidence that parental contact would cause substantial harm to the child, contact can
28	be constitutionally eliminated. Troxel v. Granville, 530 U.S. 57 (2000); Santosky v.
29	Kramer, 455 U.S. 745 (1982). In accordance with Ch.C. Art. 307, the juvenile court
30	has exclusive original jurisdiction in child in need of care proceedings and

1	continuing jurisdiction over any custody determination rendered. Ch.C. Art. 309.
2	Paragraph D reflects the general jurisdictional policy of Ch.C. Art. 313.
3	Art. 724. Motion for Modification of guardianship; termination of
4	guardianship
5	A. The court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce, modify, or terminate a
6	guardianship order until the child obtains eighteen years of age.
7	B. The department, counsel for the child, the guardian, a parent
8	permitted to intervene under Article 707, or the court on its own motion may
9	seek to enforce, modify or terminate a guardianship order.
10	C. A guardianship order may be enforced in accordance with the
11	contempt provisions of Chapter 2 of Title XV of this Code.
12	D. A guardianship order may be modified or terminated if the court
13	finds by clear and convincing evidence that there has been a substantial and
14	material change in the circumstances of the guardian or child because of any of
15	the following:
16	(1) The guardian no longer wishes to serve or can no longer serve as
17	guardian of the child.
18	(2) Continuation of the guardianship is so deleterious to the child as to
19	justify a modification or termination of the relationship or the harm likely to be
20	caused from a change in the guardianship is substantially outweighed by the
21	advantages to the child of the modification.
22	E. The court shall hold a hearing before modifying or terminating a
23	guardianship and shall, at the conclusion of the hearing, enter a written order
24	that includes the findings upon which the order is based.
25	Comments - 2011
26	(a) This Article is suggested by the Georgia statute, GA.CODE S 15-11-356;
27	however, several features have been added. Enforcement of a guardianship
28	judgment, if necessary, could be achieved through ordinary contempt provisions,
29	pursuant to Chapter 2 of Title XV of this Code.
30	(b) Paragraph B reflects a policy decision of limiting those who can move for

1	a reconsideration of a guardianship judgment. This Paragraph is intended to
2	preclude a parent from having this right of action unless the parent first is able to
3	demonstrate good cause that intervention is warranted. Paragraph B does not
4	broaden the grounds for modification that are set forth in Paragraph D.
5	(c) Paragraph D reflects the policy that the most important feature of a
6	guardianship was its permanence during the child's minority; therefore, the standard
7	for modification or termination ought to be quite stringent, except where the
8	guardian seeks termination or modification. Thus, the material change must occur
9	in the circumstances of the guardian or child. Improvement of a parent's capabilities,
10	for example, would not satisfy the threshold requirement that some deterioration in
11	the quality of the guardian's care must be demonstrated. The Louisiana custody
12	modification standard announced in Bergeron v. Bergeron, 492 So.2d 1193 (La.
13	1986) is used here in Subparagraph D(2).
