EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. The state procurement services that would impact state governmental entities are contained within Title 39 under the Louisiana Procurement Code, while Title 38 includes the public bid law for local governmental entities.

This bill allows public entities to establish rules governing the procurement of services and that a public entity must adhere to those rules. To the extent a public entity establishes public bid rules and fails to adhere to those rules, this bill provides for an aggrieved party to seek enforcement of such rules through the judicial process.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
