

Requests each member of a local public school board to voluntarily substitute teach in a public elementary or secondary school for at least one full school day each year.