2011 REGULAR SESSION
ACTUARIAL NOTE HB 425

Bill Information:

Current Law

Under current law, the Employees' Retirement System of the Sewerage and Water Board of New Orleans is created for the benefit of the employees of the Sewerage and Water Board of New Orleans (SWBNO) and is under the jurisdiction, control, and management of the SWBNO. The SWBNO shall have the authority to establish rules and regulations it finds necessary for carrying out the purpose of the retirement system.

The pension committee of SWBNO is defined under the rules and regulations of the retirement system, where by no salaries, fees, commissions, or compensation for service shall be paid out of the pension fund to anyone serving on the committee or in any other capacity.

Proposed Law

Under the proposed law, the Employees' Retirement System of the Sewerage and Water Board of New Orleans is under the jurisdiction, control, and management of the board of trustees of the retirement system rather than that of the SWBNO. The board of trustees shall be composed of:

1. The members of the Sewerage and Water Board of New Orleans.
2. Three elected employee members of the pension committee.
3. One retiree member of the pension committee.

Implications of the Proposed Changes

The proposed legislation changes the governing body of the retirement system from the Sewerage and Water Board of New Orleans (SWBNO) to the board of trustees of the retirement system. The board of trustees shall consist of the members of the Sewerage and Water Board of New Orleans, as well as, three elected employee members of the pension committee and one retiree member or the pension committee.
