Provides relative to the issuance of bonds by public trusts. (8/15/11)

Removes requirement for State Bond Commission’s approval of the notice of intention. Changes the seller of such bonds from the State Bond Commission to the public trust, except when the state is the beneficiary of the financing. Expands authority (from public trusts in Jefferson Parish) requiring lessee of each of the projects of the public trust to pay annually a sum in lieu of ad valorem taxes to compensate for services, to all public trusts. Effective when approved by a resolution of the parish, municipality, or a political or governmental subdivision which is the beneficiary of such public trust.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

The bill does not increase or decrease direct revenues to the state. The State Bond Commission has the power to impose fees on debt applications, including application and closing fees relate to such issuance of debt. Present law requires two State Bond Commission approvals for certain debt issuance of a public trust for which the State Bond Commission only collects one application fee for both approvals. A reduction in the number of State Bond Commission approvals will not change the amount collected from application and closing fees. Debt issuances by public trusts will still require State Bond Commission approval.
