EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

Implementation of the proposed legislation could decrease election expenses by providing for use of a regularly scheduled election date rather than a stand-alone election to elect a successor for a vacancy in a state legislative office whenever a legislative vacancy occurs after the close of a legislative session. The legislation requires the presiding office to choose a regularly scheduled election date in accordance with R.S. 18:402 for an election to fill a legislative vacancy, except when 6 months or more is left in the legislative term.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
