Urges and requests local governments to discontinue the use of gas chambers in animal control offices at the earliest possible date.