

Existing law provides for the territorial limits of the Morgan City Harbor and Terminal District in St. Mary Parish.

New law retains existing law and also provides for the expansion of the district to include the Wax Lake Outlet (also known as the Calumet Cut) extending from the southeastern corner of Six Mile Lake to the western side of Atchafalaya Bay, and including that part of the Wax Lake Outlet to the point referred above at a point 200 feet east of the eastern bank of the Wax Lake Outlet.

Effective August 15, 2011.
