

Existing law provides an exception to residents of this state and who are sixty years of age or older to obtain a special identification card without charge. Further exempts the residents from expiration and renewal provisions.

New law retains existing law, but exempts sex offenders from obtaining a special identification card without charge.

Effective August 15, 2011.

(Amends R.S. 40:1321(H))